

ONLY HE KNOWS

Each morning, I walk in silence

Feel the soothing breeze on my face

Feeling content – alive!

The singing of the birds, I hear

And my heart leaps in jubilation!

It forgets moments of despair ~

My eyes see the blue waves yonder

The impulse to fly takes hold of my being

Wishing I am one of the seagulls piloting the sky

Feeling free!

I taste the mist of dew on my lips before the dawn even breaks

And the moment of truth embraces my soul

And I herald the advent of a new day

Another future to hold and to share

Whatever the day brings, GOD is always there

And that HE truly cares

Only HE knows the immeasurable joy within

Only HE knows since He made me.

HE is the Beginning and the End ~

The Answer to every seeking mind ~

Healer of the sick and the afflicted ~

Hope for humankind.
